Wise Master

Chapter of Rose Croix

This being my last time writing to you as Wise Master, I would like to thank you, the Scottish Rite members in the Valley of Pasadena, for the privilege of serving you this year as Wise Master. Several years ago when I was appointed an Officer in the Chapter of Rose Croix, this date seemed far in the future but, the years have flown by. The year of my leadership will soon end and my successor is in the wings ready to serve in 2011.

At our November meeting we will be having dinner at 6:30pm followed by a visit from Rudyard Kipling as portrayed by Bro. Richard Pierce.

Don't forget our fall class is coming up this month and we need your help to make it a success by bringing in petitions.

*As I pass through my incarnations
in every age and race,
I make my proper prostrations
to the Gods of the Market Place.
Peering through reverent fingers
I watch them flourish and fall,
And the Gods of the Copybook
Headings, I notice, outlast them all...*

Bro. Rudyard Kipling

This summer I had the privilege of joining 20 Boy Scouts and 13 Scouters from South Pasadena Troop 333 on a 10 day trip to the east coast. On this trip we visited the U.S. Capital and the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, MD. We attended the 2010 National Scout Jamboree at Fort A.P. Hill, VA and camped out on the Gettysburg National Battlefield in PA. They hiked 20 miles along the C&O Canal to Harpers Ferry WV & went canoeing on Antietam Creek and the Potomac River. We were given a custom tour of the US Naval Academy by one of our own Eagle Scouts who is now a Lieutenant in the Navy and the 3rd Company officer at the academy.

Jubal & Tubal Cain

by Bro. Rudyard Kipling

Jubal sang of the wrath of God
And the curse of thistle and thorn,
But Tubal got him a pointed rod
And scrambled the earth for corn.
Old - old as that early mould,
Young as the sprouting grain-
Yearly green is the strife between

Jubal and Tubal Cain!

Jubal sang of the new found sea,
And the love that its waves divide:
But Tubal hollowed a fallen tree
And passed to the farther side.
Black - black as the hurricane wrack,
Salt as the under main
Bitter and cold is the hate they hold -

Jubal and Tubal Cain!

Jubal sang of the golden years,
When wars and wounds shall cease;
But Tubal fashioned the hand-flung spears
And showed his neighbors peace.
New - new as the nine-point-two,
Older than Lamech's slain
Roaring and loud is the feud avowed, 'twixt

Jubal and Tubal Cain!

Jubal sang of the cliffs that bar
And the peaks that none may crown
But Tubal clambered by jut and scar,
And there he builded a town.
High - high as the snowsheds lie,
Low as the culverts drain
Wherever they be, they can never agree-

Jubal and Tubal Cain!

Language Center News

This is a letter received at our Language Center. Only the names have been altered.

“I cannot thank you enough for performing a free speech evaluation for my son. Your time and input helped me tremendously in understanding where he is at and in understanding what he needs. I was very impressed by your knowledge, by how you worked with my son, by your professionalism and by your kindness. And I still cannot believe that all of this was at no charge! I cannot tell you how much money I have spent on various therapies, consultations, doctors, advocates, and so on. So I want to thank you again for your generosity!

Enclosed is a small “thank you” for your tremendous help!

You too can help. Our Language Center does great “miracles” for the children who pass through our doors. We need your help to carry on our Scottish Rite charity.

The Social Order of the Beauceant of the World

The first meeting of the S.O.O.B. (Some of our Business) was held on February 20, 1890, in Denver, Colorado, following a suggestion by several Knights Templar. After two years, “Lodge No. 1, Denver, Colorado” was added to the name when a second ritual was adopted. A national organization was considered on January 9, 1913, and the name changed to Social Order of the Beauceant, which is the name derived from the ancient Knight Templar banner. In March of 1913 a third ritual was adopted and permission granted to confer the Degree upon wives of Sir Knights during the Conclave so that they might return to their states and organize Assemblies. The Supreme Assembly was organized November 11-12, 1920, in Denver, Colorado.

Members must be wives or widows of Knights Templar who are members of good standing in legally constituted Commandery of Knights Templar, or were at the date of their decease.

The purpose is to promote loyal friendships and aid the Knights Templar when requested.

Mrs. (W. Joe) Kathryn “Katie” Ryland is the Supreme Worthy President of this fine organization for the USA. She was installed in her top office during the Supreme Assembly, September 27-30.

Katie will be traveling throughout our country from now to next May, visiting Assemblies throughout. Congratulations Katie.

Katie is the wife of our Treasurer, Ill. W. Joe Ryland, 33°. He will accompany her for the one year of Visitations.

Origin of the Scottish Rite

The Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, as we know it today, had its origins on the continent of Europe. Its immediate predecessor, known as The Order of the Royal Secret, consisted of 25 Degrees under the Constitutions of 1762. Masonic traditions maintains that Lodges of this Rite, transmitted from Bordeaux in France through the West Indies to the American mainland, were established at New Orleans, Louisiana, in 1763; at Albany, New York, in 1767; at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1781-82; and at Charleston, South Carolina, in 1783.

The Grand Constitutions of 1786 provided for an extension of the Rite to thirty-three Degrees, governed in each country under a Supreme Council of the Thirty-third and Last Degree. Its provisions were cited in a Manifesto at Charleston that confirmed the first Supreme Council ever opened under these Grand Constitutions, on May 31, 1801, "by Brothers John Mitchell and Frederick Dalcho." All regular and recognized Supreme Councils and their Subordinate Bodies today are descended directly or collaterally from this Mother Supreme Council of the World.

Scottish Rite / G. L. Officers

Once again the Valley is well represented in the cast of Grand Lodge Officers for 2010-11. Lynn Wallingford, KCCH and Jack Rose, 33° are Asst. Grand Lecturers. Jeff Yates, 32° is the Grand Sword Bearer and Steve Miller, KCCH is the Grand Organist. Congratulations to all.

Vernon Dandridge, 33° completed his nine year term of distinguished service to the California Masonic Grand Lodge as an Asst. Grand Lecturer. A job well done with great service to his brethren.

We are proud of all these brothers and their commitments to Masonry and the Scottish Rite.

Language Center

The season of thanks is upon us this month. It is a fun and joyous time as we plan our Thanksgiving holiday visits with friends and families. The families and staff of the Language Center want to extend their thanks to the members of the Pasadena Scottish Rite for their generous donations that allow our center to operate. Children, parents, and therapists come together each week as a team to build language and communication skills. We are all so thankful for the opportunity to do such wonderful work. This past month we were able to evaluate five children, discharge two children, and complete three hundred and twenty sessions of therapy with forty four children.

We provide a very valuable service each day as the need for therapy services continues to grow. We have a growing wait list and anticipate more children to be added to our wait list as the California state budget cuts reduce the available services to our community.
