Chapter of Rose Croix

Greetings Brethren,

I would like to thank you for your support and trust in allowing me to serve as Wise Master of the Chapter of Rose Croix for the 2022 year. I consider it an honor and a privilege to serve the Valley and all of you. I strive to continue to build upon the great foundation that my predecessors have built.

On April 1, 2022, the Officers of the Chapter Rose Croix will perform the “Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal.” In the observance of this, we will celebrate the lives of our fellow Brethren who have passed on to the Celestial Lodge above, while also renewing our fraternal ties to our Brethren present. “A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another” (John 13:34). These are the words spoken by the Master of Nazareth as He broke bread with His Disciples at the Last Supper. They are simple words. Yet they express the most sublime truth: all men are brothers. We share one origin and one common obligation.

The last two years prevented us from meeting in person for this ceremony, but Illustrious Jim Hoerricks, 33°, had been so kind to prepare and present a video to the Valley. I’d like to express my appreciation for Jim’s help with this and am honored that he has accepted the invitation to be a guest speaker for the evening to share some of his vast knowledge of Masonic history and its traditions, which I am sure you will enjoy.

The Chapters of Rose Croix traditionally observe the celebration of the Mystic Banquet as a memorial service honoring the Knights of their Chapter who have passed. While it may seem to be a sad occasion to remember the loss of our friends and brothers, it is also a time for reflection and growth. Because the Ceremony is held in the spring we are reminded that the season is symbolic of growth and that “spring comes again, growth matures, and fruit is eternal”. This observance strengthens the ties of brotherly love, past and present. We meet together to break the bread of fraternity, to reconcile ourselves with those we may have offended, and to drink the wine of refreshment and renewal.

Rich in symbolism, the Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal is also a celebration of our Masonic bonds and a time to reflect upon our own individual quest. As Masons, we are traveling together on a mystic journey, a journey toward a greater Light.

Please join me on April 1, 2022 as we observe the “Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal” and extend that invitation to all the Brethren in your Blue Lodge. Masons and their families, as well friends are welcome to attend. Dinner will be served by reservation.

UPDATED COVID 19 MASK REQUIREMENT

Proof of full vaccination required (2 Pfizer or 2 Moderna, or 1 Johnson & Johnson) Fully vaccinated persons will not be required to wear a mask while attending a Scottish Rite function, BUT IT IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THAT THEY DO.

Non vaccinated persons must show proof of negative covid test (PCL administered no later than 2 days before, Antigen administered 1 day before) Such persons shall be required to wear a mask at all times while at a Scottish Rite event, except when eating.

As per recommendation of the Pasadena Public Health Department dated 02/24/2022

Meet the Wise Master

Massimo Del Grande, 32° KSA

Wise Master, Chapter of Rose Croix

Massimo Del Grande was born in Livorno, Italy. After high school Massimo moved to Northern Italy and worked in the family business, which he did for many years before coming to the United States. Massimo enjoyed growing up in Italy along the coast of the Tuscany region. It's a beautiful place to visit. Growing up in Livorno he had greater exposure to the American culture due to a U.S. military base being in the area. Ever since he was a young child, Massimo dreamed of living in the U.S.

Over the years, Massimo would visit childhood friends who lived in the U.S. He immediately feel in love with Los Angeles. Massimo's last visit in late 2015, became the beginning of a new chapter in his life. He met his wife Julie and began to build a life here in the U.S. Massimo and Julie enjoy traveling and exploring the outdoors.

Massimo began his Masonic journey in 2016. He had always been interested in masonry. After passing by Culver City-Foshay Lodge No. 467 on a regular basis he decided it was time to take the next step. On March 16, 2016 he was initiated into Culver City-Foshay and was raised a Master Mason on July 22, 2016. In October 2016, Massimo became a member of the Pasadena Scottish Rite and immediately joined the Knights of Saint Andrew. In 2018, he became the Director of the Ambassador program and appointed to the officer line of the chapter of Rose Croix. Massimo has continued his masonic journey by joining other bodies and is presently;

- Grand Officer of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of California
- Appointed Supreme Officer of the Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots for the United States
- A member of several invitation only organizations in the state of California, Utah and Colorado

He is also a member of Lucis Trust, a spiritual organization working closely with the United Nations. His masonic journey has become a big part of Massimo's life.

The Fundamentals of Masonry

Freemasonry unite men who, in brotherly formation and through honorable and ritualistic methods, endeavor to achieve spiritual understanding and moral refinement.

Universal Charity, Brotherhood, Beneficence, and Education toward these and everything which benefit humanity are its main purposes.

Freedom of religion, of conscience, and of thought are Freemasonry's highest goal. Freemasonry accepts without religious, racial, national or political prejudice or without regards to station in life, upright and moral men as Brothers.

Freemasonry recognizes in the structure of the World in all that lives in the inner consciousness of man ad divine Creator-Spirit, full of Wisdom, Strength and Beauty, and reveres him as the Great Architect of the Universe.

Freemasonry is a moral. Not a political order and takes no part in political or religious disputes. It is not a religious society, not a secret alliance, demands no unlawful secrecy and imparts no magical information.

The Secretary's Memo Pad

Ill. William F. Rook, 33°

To start our spring months off a few thanks are needed. To the cast and crew of the Spirit of Hiram thank you for your splendid effort in presenting our 84th production. To those Knights who stepped up and assisted our visitors and manned the Tyler position a thank you too along with Ben Masoyan. And thank you Brother Eusebio Sanchez for making sure our guests were well fed.

April will find the Chapter of Rose Croix presenting the Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal on April 1 at 6 PM followed by dinner at 6:30 PM and then the relighting of the Temple lights at 8 PM.

During dinner the Theater Guild will present a radio reader theater production of play The Inquiry.

April 8th and 9th is the Southern Jurisdiction's Southwest Regional Leadership conference. We have nine brothers attending the conference in San Diego. Hopefully they will return rejuvenated and ready to share their newly acquired leadership skills.

Look at our stats for March (part of this bulletin) if you haven't paid your 2022 dues please consider a remittance of them to our office. And as always if you are having difficulty paying your dues, give my office a call and let's discuss some alternatives.

Let's Spring forth and make the Scottish Rite the Right Rite.

Brethren,

April is here with showers we hope, and desperately need. The downside is that the tax man is also here. We have survived the winter and see a new beginning with the decline of the threat of the Covid virus. Our April Stated Meeting will convene at 5:30 pm on 1 April 2022 in the classroom. We will then meet in the auditorium for first part of the Remembrance and Renewal Ceremony.

We will then meet in the dining Hall for dinner and witness a radio play directed by our director of the Work. We will then return to the auditorium for the second part of the Remembrance and Renewal Ceremony. The covid protocols for the Stated Meeting and dinner will be as follow: Proof of vaccination or a negative Covid test is required for admittance. Masks will be worn unless eating. Masks are also required for those seated in the auditorium. These protocols will be reviewed in the following months.

In 1994 it was deemed appropriate that a Scottish Rite nonobligatory “Celebration of Remembrance and Renewal” should replace the traditional Maundy Thursday observance and be held near the vernal equinox, March 21. The words of this ceremony speak to the hearts and minds of all men. The Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal, including the Mystic Banquet, is not a religious observance. It is neither the Feast of the Passover nor a Sacrament of Holy Communion, although it commemorates the spirit of both days. Chapters of Rose Croix traditionally observe the celebration of the Mystic Banquet as a memorial service honoring the Knights of their Chapter who have passed during the preceding year. This observance strengthens the ties of brotherly love, past and present. We meet to break the bread of fraternity, to reconcile ourselves with those we may have offended, and to drink the wine of refreshment and renewal. Thus, we celebrate the lives of our departed Brethren and promise to abide by the New Law, the Law of Love, with our present Brethren and all mankind.

Masonry is duty, and its practice, often fraught with personal sacrifice, requires the performance of duty for the good of humanity, Christian, Jew, Parsee—each keeps the festival of the vernal equinox in his own manner, whether it is the observation of Holy Thursday, the Passover, or Jamshedji Nauroz. Each event, appropriate to its special significance, is reflected in the Mystic Banquet which the Brethren of the Scottish Rite traditionally celebrate near the vernal equinox, March 21. Here the Rite commemorates the dignity and divine origin of man. It sees the essential truth which structures each ritual. In the diversity of image, place, and detail that each observance affords, the Rite brings into clear focus the elemental lesson of Rebirth, Freedom, and Fraternity. (Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States)

If you know a Brother who needs a ride to the Rite please offer it so that he can enjoy our Friday night with him.

In this continuing time of uncertainty, please keep our men and women of our military stationed around the world in your thoughts and prayers.

A Sponsor's Responsibility

For every petitioner for the degrees of Scottish Rite Degrees there is a Scottish Rite Mason who is his sponsor on whom rests the responsibility for proper training of the petitioner. The Scottish Rite Mason who signs the petition has a responsibility that does not end with their signature on the petition. If you invited a guest to a gathering at your home, you make sure that he meets all of your guest and is made welcome and comfortable. Isn't the man whom you recommend Scottish Rite Freemasonry entitled to the same courtesy? As his sponsor, is it not your duty to assist him with his work and take an interest in his progress? It seems to us that it is, and that you should see to it that he fully understands the fine lessons of our degrees. If you recommend a man to the Scottish Rite, satisfy yourself that he is receiving that for which you recommended him. To do so is but a Masonic courtesy and it is your duty as a Scottish Rite Mason.

Mission Statement

It is the mission of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, SJ, to improve its members and enhance the communities in which they live by teaching and emulating the principles of Brotherly Love, Tolerance, Charity, and Truth while actively embracing high social, moral, and spiritual values including fellowship, compassion, and dedication to God, family and country.

Strategic Objectives

Fulfill the promise of additional Masonic knowledge through education and training.

Build a Positive Public Image of Freemasonry and the Scottish Rite.

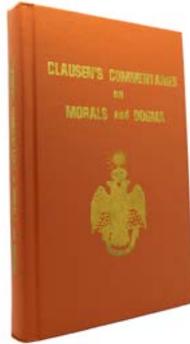

Support and expand our philanthropic activities.

Provide a framework for effective leadership to ensure the stability and long-term success of the Fraternity.

Provide a financial process to ensure the stability and long-term success of the Fraternity

Scottish Rite Creed

Human progress is our cause, liberty of thought our supreme wish, freedom of conscience our mission, and the guarantee of equal rights to all people everywhere our ultimate goal.

CLAUSEN'S COMMENTARY ON MORALS AND DOGMA.

By HENRY C. CLAUSEN, 33°

Sovereign Grand Commander of The Supreme Council, 33°, Scottish Rite, SJ.
(Mother Supreme Council of the World). 1969 – 1985.

Sovereign Grand Inspector General in California. NNNN-1969.

Past Grand Master of Masons in California. 1954.

Knight Commander of The Temple. Twenty-Seventh Degree (28 SR-SJ)

This Degree revives the old knightly spirit of duty and worship of truth. There was a time when a knight would die rather than utter an untruth or profess an opinion for the sake of mere expediency, profit, or fear of worldly disfavor. He would not color or pervert the sayings or acts of other men; would not speak or argue insincerely nor soil his fair escutcheon under any pretext. All this he would observe whether in or out of his Chapter. Despite all our idealistic endeavors, philosophies of wisdom and restraint and sublime and exalted meditations, there are times and events that call for aggressive action, displays of strength and indomitable will to victory in battles which must be waged to support the virtues we proclaim. Our lives should scorn the base and selfish, and make manifest the knightly attributes of character and charity, truth and honor, rather than be examples of accumulations of wealth and worldly power. This is practical Masonry in action, as when we perform our duties to the poor and helpless, the weak and unhappy, the distraught and infirm. (Summary, pages.165-166)

Our Scottish Rite-the strong right arm of Masonry that wields aloft the flaming sword of truth-has labored to give humanity its birthright of freedom of thought, freedom of speech and a free government, to overcome tyranny, injustice and usurpation, and to smite the despotism of a despot. The betterment and up building of the human race are the duties of every Mason in the spirit of a knight's selflessness. This does not mean we should lose our lives when the loss would effect no good result. Rather, we should help our fellow man, sacrifice our personal comfort and desires and help him ascend onto a higher plane of spiritual enfoldment so he may understand himself. As Epictetus wisely said: "Be not diverted from your duty by any idle reflections the world may make upon you, for its censures are not in your power and consequently should not be any part of your concern."

Do good to all men. Try to remember that the human race is one great family of which you are a part. Every true Knight of our Scottish Rite labors for the good of his Brother so as to benefit him mentally and morally, teaching that he should practice humility, patience, charity and self-denial, but never submit to oppression, injustice or usurpation, to spiritual tyranny or political despotism.

Throughout its inspirational history, the Scottish Rite of the Mother Jurisdiction has been a champion of the rights of the people, teaching, practicing and inculcating among all men a knowledge of truth, striving to free them from animalistic passions and from ignorance, bigotry, intolerance and spiritual slavery. There the true knight sounds the bugle and draws his sword.

We are reminded also that life is not a meadow for meditation. Instead, as Horace said: "All virtue is a struggle; life is not a scene of repose but of energetic action."

Life requires energetic action. Similarly, Masonic responsibilities require Masonic action, the kind that I have called "Shirt-sleeve Masonry.” By this I mean the practical application in our daily lives of those principles which we are taught in our Lodges.

Charles Dickens said: “Possibly we might even improve the world a little, if we got up early in the morning and took our coats off to the work.”

That is “Shirt-sleeve Masonry.” Taking off our coats to the work, instead of indulging solely in vague or mystical contemplations. Let’s take off our coats to the work. Let’s do some real live, day-by-day, down-to-earth, practical “Shirt-sleeve Masonry.”

In considering that we of the Scottish Rite are doers as well as thinkers, bear in mind what Professor William James of Harvard University said:

“Action seems to follow feeling, but really action and feeling go together; and by regulating the action, which is under the more direct control of the will, we can indirectly regulate the feeling, which is not.”
