Dear Brethren,

I am happy to report that our reunion in May was conducted with the utmost commitment to excellence from our brethren and I like to congratulate everyone on their efforts. It is important that we accept and seek new members for our valley, but more importantly is the gratitude we owe to our veteran members and the work they have done before us.

Our Grand Master has proclaimed July 2022 to be Support Our Veterans Month. We do owe our Veterans, who have protected our Nation, Constitution, Flag, and the Democracy knowing well the risk they take. Let's give thanks to anyone who has served this country selflessly, go shake their hand, tell them that you are grateful for the work he or she has done. If you are visiting a cemetery, take few extra flowers with you and put on any Veterans grave or memorial you come across, or visiting senior housing, or You know what I mean.

Similarly, let's say thank you to all our veteran members when we see them, in our fraternity we recognize how important our role is in the society and how much commitment and work is devoted by each and everyone of us to do our "Labor", to serve our communities, through Masonry.

Our Grand Master also has proclaimed August 2022 the First Responders Month. The First Responders are one of the most valuable and essential part of our communities. The current realty in our nation is, we have more crime taking place, Lives are taken away senselessly, people are rubbed, and their properties are taken with no regards for lives.

We need the First Responders more than ever and we must make every effort to make sure they know how grateful we are for their services. But wait, it is not enough to just tell them, we must make sure their families are also recognized and appreciated by us in any manner. Few years ago, I was having dinner with my family at a local restaurant, and there walks in a firefighter in his casual uniform (Firefighters T-Shirt and so on) his children (a son and a daughter) his wife and their elder parents. As they were waiting to be seated a middle-aged man who was sitting next to our table stood up walked to the manager and within a minute or so, they put together a large table in the middle row between the “booths”. Meantime he walked to the Firefighters family and said, “I hope you will honor me and my family by joining us for dinner.” I was so moved by his gesture that I walked up to him and shook his hand in token of my appreciation for his big heart and offered to participate in the cost.

What I am proposing is, we make every effort, and be vigilant of our surrounding people and express our gratitude as exemplified by the story. Use your Masonic teachings and be the man our Fraternity and traditions has thought us to be.

Gratitude is a gift of heart...

Fraternally

Please take a moment to call upon your distressed brethren.

The Secretary's Memo Pad

Ill. William F. Rook, 33°

Here we are in the middle of the summer season.

As I start this missive to our membership I just received info that the Two Sphinx that guard the House of the Temple have been seriously vandalized. More info to come as it reaches me.

At our July meeting our SGIG Frank Loui and his wife Jeanie will be here for their annual visitation. Please consider joining us for dinner and in welcoming them. July, August and September are business casual meetings. July will be Crazy Hawaiian shirt night, August will be Lodge Shirt night and honoring our lodges around Southern California, and September, being Constitution Month, the wearing of patriotic attire.

Six Months has passed, and we are still collecting dues. To date, there are 120 yet to pay their 2022 dues. There are 46 more who are 2 years in arrears and subject to suspension by December 15 of this year. Brothers at this time the Lodge of Perfection lives and works on our dues. Realistically, with the budget the Lodge of Perfection has dues should be $376 + $30 per capita to Supreme council. But our dues are half that amount, but we make due because of the wise investing of our Treasurer and his finance committee allow us to proceed.

If dues are a hardship for you then give me a call and we have some alternative plans we can discuss, especially those 46-nearing suspension.

Wishing all a great summer and a gathering of family events in you future.

The P.R.'s Corner

Ill. Rees Padfield, 33°

Brethren,

I know that a second is a second and an hour is an hour, but today time overall has seemingly sped up. It was just a few days ago it seemed we were starting our Masonic year and here we are, six months into 2022 having performed our Spirit of Hiram play, our spring reunion, school being over, weddings and graduations observed. Time has always had a way of slipping by unnoticed. Our annual SGIG visit is planned for our July Stated Meeting dinner and meeting, assuming the Pasadena Public Health Department doesn't change the Covid protocols. I invite all the spouses and significant others to attend our dinner and the Women's Association meeting afterward to be with Jeannie, our SGIG's Lady.

Of course, we couldn't start July without remembering the 4th. Our founding Father's rationale, reasoning and compromising have been proven sound time and time again. Their thoughts, worries and admonitions should be relearned in each generation. We should take the time during our picnics and family and friends get together to remember the political climate and social mores of the late 1770s and absolute dangers our forefathers faced in the generation of our country's founding documents.

As we look out across California, the United States, and the world, we see the complete need for the return of civility, the need for compromise, and the defense of freedom of choice. The realization of facts and the truth are more important then ever. Our Masonic tenets and teaching are desperately needed. We all should be the examples of those principles.

At the celebrations of the 4th, as with Memorial Day, should you meet or see an active-duty service man or woman, a veteran, or a first responder, stop, and thank them for their dedication and sacrifices. We are all in their debt. Their response will enlighten you as well as them.

Be careful and safe, and I hope to see you all at our July Stated Meeting and dinner.

The Traitor.

The time is 1784, three years after Cornwallis's surrender at Yorktown and one year after signing the Treaty of Paris. During this year, the Marquis de Lafayette made a five month visit to the United States, his first since the victory of Yorktown ...

In this radio play presented by the Pasadena Scottish Rite Drama Guild, the American Revolution has just ended, and General George Washington is a national hero. No group is more proud of Washington's accomplishments than the Masonic lodges of the newly formed United States of America. Throughout the war, Washington surrounded himself with fellow masons as his trusted advisors. The Traitor depicts a dream by Benedict Arnold, who was also a general in the war but later defected to the British forces. In his dream, Brother Washington is being honored at a Masonic lodge meeting. By chance, a former British officer and his aide also attend the meeting. Vivid memories and warm feelings prevail ... until the topic of betrayal and espionage is raised. Explore the role played by the Masons in our nation's development, from the positive to the more destructive and self-centered.

Join us for the dramatic presentation of the Traitor, July 8th @ 1830 at the Pasadena Scottish Rite Cathedral. Dinner reservations must be made in advance with the Pasadena Scottish Rite Office.

Women's Association News

Gentlemen, thank you for sharing this newsletter with your lady

To the Ladies of Scottish Rite Pasadena,

The Ladies of Scottish Rite Pasadena have been invited to start preparing for the 100-year anniversary of Scottish Rite in the next three years.

We have an interesting project which we have been asked to do. There are scrapbooks which were put together probably 70 years ago which pertain to the history of the organization. They are sorely in need of repair and preservation to allow us to read them and keep them for future use. In addition, we will try to also record them electronically.

Next month we will start on this project. Please join us in our room during the Stated Meeting. We met with a nice group last month with entertainment. This will be a bit different.

Sincerely,

Lynda Lockhart
President

A Sponsor's Responsibility

For every petitioner for the degrees of Scottish Rite Degrees there is a Scottish Rite Mason who is his sponsor on whom rests the responsibility for proper training of the petitioner. The Scottish Rite Mason who signs the petition has a responsibility that does not end with their signature on the petition. If you invited a guest to a gathering at your home, you make sure that he meets all of your guest and is made welcome and comfortable. Isn't the man whom you recommend Scottish Rite Freemasonry entitled to the same courtesy? As his sponsor, is it not your duty to assist him with his work and take an interest in his progress? It seems to us that it is, and that you should see to it that he fully understands the fine lessons of our degrees. If you recommend a man to the Scottish Rite, satisfy yourself that he is receiving that for which you recommended him. To do so is but a Masonic courtesy and it is your duty as a Scottish Rite Mason.

Mission Statement

It is the mission of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, SJ, to improve its members and enhance the communities in which they live by teaching and emulating the principles of Brotherly Love, Tolerance, Charity, and Truth while actively embracing high social, moral, and spiritual values including fellowship, compassion, and dedication to God, family and country.

Strategic Objectives

Fulfill the promise of additional Masonic knowledge through education and training.

Build a Positive Public Image of Freemasonry and the Scottish Rite.

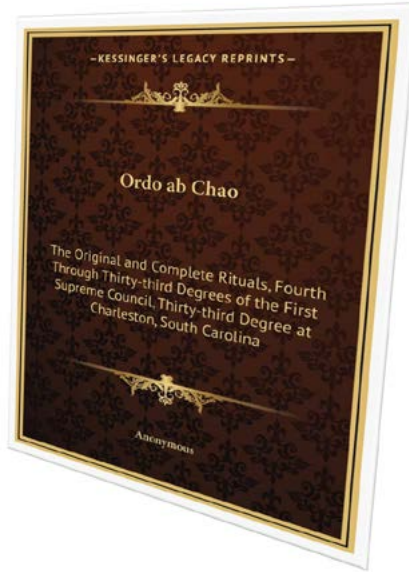

Support and expand our philanthropic activities.

Provide a framework for effective leadership to ensure the stability and long-term success of the Fraternity.

Provide a financial process to ensure the stability and long-term success of the Fraternity

Scottish Rite Creed

Human progress is our cause, liberty of thought our supreme wish, freedom of conscience our mission, and the guarantee of equal rights to all people everywhere our ultimate goal.

14th Degree.

Grand Elect, Perfect & Sublime Mason.

§. History

My dear Brother, your good conduct, zeal and discretion. have been the cause of our determining you give you, in the end, the true knowledge of perfection. You have now received the name of Grand, Elect, Perfect & Sublime Mason—we are also happy to, my venerable Brother, in having a circumspection in giving you this knowledge, without which we should be liable to the same fatality that the 3 first degrees has been subject to.

You know, my Brother, when the temple at Jerusalem was finished, the Masons had achieved great honor, their society was established into an order and the extreme niceness of the Brethren in their choice of fit objects rendered them respectable for merit—and merit only proved as yours has been—procured them this advantage.

The Grand, Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons were not by any means to be seduced to determine in favor of Candidates who were unworthy, but received those (of at the utmost hazard To themselves) who appeared deserving of that Honor. The principal members of the Grand, Elect, perfect and Sublime Masons, being able workmen, passed from Jerusalem after the dedication of the Temple, and dispersed themselves among the neighboring nations, to instruct them in the Truth of the Royal Craft, but with the precaution of only initiating the males, and those of a free and eminent understanding. Notwithstanding this resolve, Masons in the inferior degrees multiplied over the face of the earth—their numbers increased beyond measure, by which means their secrets were disclosed; their knowledge was made common, and they were held in no high esteem.

The Grand. Elect, Perfect & Sublime Masons only, had the precaution to conceal the higher Mysteries, by coming to a resolution not to raise any higher than a Master and if such were not circumspect in their words, actions and lives, to give them no further knowledge. As it was through the imprudence of some of the Brethren in the 3 Lower degrees, that Cowans frequently obtained their Signs and tokens. These disorders chagrined the Perfect Masons (who luckily at that time were but few in number,) they look great pains to stop the contagion but all their endeavors were in vain, the Craft degenerated Insensibly.

Receptions were obtained too easily, the intervals between degrees were broke into too hastily and were scares separated at all- In the end they were not preferred by merit, but preferring amusement to Instruction, innovations increased and new doctrines arose, which destroyed the old (that they ought to have adhered to). These differences occasioned disputes, quarrels, heart burnings, and dissensions, which in the end produced a total discovery of our Works — for which we grieve., and by which masonry suffered in the three first Degrees.

Happy it is for us who have the consolation of knowing the secret of the Grand, Elect. Perfect & Sublime Masons—let us endeavor to render it impossible for this degree to share the same fate as the three lower; let us be animated with zeal to procure that Ancient perfection. We travel to obtain their science and to follow their direction, in order to get a full knowledge of their noble occupation.

Note: It is an interesting manuscript that is presumed to have been written around 1806, it is not known if it has been an official Ritual of the SRJS or SRJN, but according to some analysts it has achieved that “The manuscripts is similar to that found in Albert Pike’s Magnum Opus (1857). Did Pike have this 1806 ritual? Possibly, yet, we know from Pike’s writings that he didn’t have all these rituals. Pike’s revisions were done without the benefit of reading the original rituals contained in this set”.
