Dear Brethren,

As our fall turns to winter, along with the cooler temperatures, we've seen some moisture. That parched earth that I called my front yard has turned green again. It is funny how a few months ago we were wailing about watering restrictions and the end of our lawns; but the lowly grass sprouts knew to hunker down in dormancy to wait for the next wet season. Such are the natural laws of this planet, as it is well said in Ecclesiastics 3:1-8, "For everything there is a season..."

We, too, are coming out of a period of hunkering down. We are so relieved to be back to face-to-face meetings and approaching normalcy. But we aren't quite there yet. We were saddened that our Fall Reunion was cancelled due to the illness of several members of the degree teams. And just last week in Simi Valley, Bethel #345 had to postpone their installation for the same reason. Whether it is a pendulum swinging back and forth, or going through cycles, we continue to move forward, despite disappointments.

I am the last Master in the 2022 officer line at Pasadena Scottish Rite, writing my last article for the year. This brings us to the beginning of the close of this term, and the only big events left for the Valley are the last stated meeting on the 6th of January, and the installation of the 2023 Officers on the 13th.

It has been my honor, first, to be selected by you, and second, to have served as Master of Kadosh this past year. Like many who have come before me, I questioned whether I was up for the task as the head of the Consistory, and in fact I was not - not without the support and guidance of so many others. And so it has been throughout my Masonic journey. Masonry is a course one cannot travel alone. And with the support of many others, I can look back and say it was a good year.

There are many to whom I owe my gratitude for this past year. I have to recognize Hon. TJ Oliva, our Venerable Master, for his patience with me and correcting my foibles in the gentlest manner. Ill. Rees Padfield has been a major source of guidance not only this year, but for all my years in Scottish Rite, and even before. Ill. Bill Rook kept me up to date, month after month, with much of the mechanics of putting together our stated meeting evenings. And I want to give a special thanks to Sir Michael Schneider, my Prior, who stepped up all too frequently in my absences, due to Covid or my travels, and wore the jewel of my office (and soon to be his office) with distinction.

There are many others to whom I am indebted. Without their efforts the Valley would not have had the successes we have achieved this past year. As I said before, Masonry is not a course you can travel alone. You cannot just sit down and get it out of books; you can't get it by memorizing every ritual ever written; you can't even get it by supporting RiteCare and all the good causes we champion. It's as my stepfather said many years ago when I was asking about joining Freemasonry, "It's the Fellowship". Working side by side with my brothers, believing in my brothers and having the back of my brothers, and they doing the same for me, is what Masonry is about.

I look forward to this next year and the following year when our building's 100 year birthday is celebrated. Despite any disappointments along the way, we will continue to move forward.

The Secretary's Memo Pad

Ill. William F. Rook, 33°

One of the most distasteful duty I have at this is at this time of the year is suspension of members. . Last month I did a membership audit. In the audit I found 10 members who were suspended from their Blue Lodge. Which means I had to suspend them from the Rite. Then I have 40 Scottish Rite members who are more than two years arrear in their dues. So, on December 31 they became suspended members.

Now these suspensions are not made without contacts. They have received letters and emails notifying them of potential suspensions. The membership retention team has made contact or attempted to make contact with these members. The Knight of Saint Andrew in their call out program has also attempted contact without success. Not all bad, we started with 54 and got down to only 40. Add the 20 deaths we had this year and our membership drops to 658.

Much of the reason is we are not engaging these brothers. That job falls in part to their sponsors. Every member has two sponsors on their application. These sponsors, by signing their application, take on the responsibility of being their mentor. By signing you vowed to be present at their Reunion weekends. As a mentor you should encourage our candidates(s) to attend stated meetings. One week before the meeting you should be in contact with them and reminding them of the meeting. You should encourage them to volunteer for them many volunteer advantages we have at the Scottish Rite. You should encourage them to seek further light through reading and studying.

Before you sign that application or are a voucher of the same, consider the new duties you vowed to. You will also be active in our membership and you may find the joy it is to be a Scottish Rite Mason.

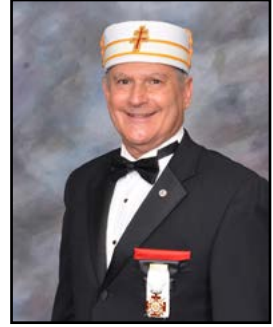

Let's have a Happy New Year. And thank you to the retiring officers for an exciting 2022.

Bill

The Assistant to the P.R.'s Corner

Ill. Gregory J. Gabriel, 33°

There is an old Armenian proverb that, once translated into English reads; "To be willing is only half the job." It is important to remember that once you agree to accept an assignment, a task, or any other duty, it is expected that you will complete that undertaking to its logical and final conclusion. It is like an obligation.

In the world of Freemasonry, it is easy to say "Yes", but sometimes difficult to follow through. There are many opportunities in our Craft to learn, achieve and contribute. And the word "NO" is rarely used. We all want to be useful, helpful, and eager to do what we can to assist the greater good, and in doing so, we often forget our own limitations.

In masonry, we have a hierarchy of priorities. First, comes you God and your family, for these are the most important matters in your life. Next, is your profession or schooling, for you need these to support the former. And lastly, is service to your chosen cause, whether it be community, humanity, or your brethren.

So, it is important to remember that when you accept the challenge to become an officer, a board member or to serve on a committee, take part in a degree or play, or even something as simple as making a dinner reservation, you must follow through with that commitment. People are depending on you to fulfill your promise. Remember the hierarchy of priorities. It is okay to say "NO". There are more important things in your life.

The next time you are asked to volunteer yourself to something you know you cannot commit to think about the old Armenian proverb: To be willing is only half the job.

Women's Association News

Gentlemen, thank you for sharing this newsletter with your lady

Dear Ladies,

In a blink of an eye it will be 2023, amazing how time flies!

January 6th is the first PSR meeting in the new year. After our dinner all ladies are welcome to join us upstairs in our lounge while the men are in their meeting.

Our supplies in the closets are slowly getting organized, we who are interested are still working on beautifying and updating our scrapbooks, and I would love brainstorm what our ladies would really enjoy as our organization evolves in the near and distant future.

Look forward to seeing you all in January.

Sincerely,

Lynda Lockhart

A Sponsor's Responsibility

For every petitioner for the degrees of Scottish Rite Degrees there is a Scottish Rite Mason who is his sponsor on whom rests the responsibility for proper training of the petitioner. The Scottish Rite Mason who signs the petition has a responsibility that does not end with their signature on the petition. If you invited a guest to a gathering at your home, you make sure that he meets all of your guest and is made welcome and comfortable. Isn't the man whom you recommend Scottish Rite Freemasonry entitled to the same courtesy? As his sponsor, is it not your duty to assist him with his work and take an interest in his progress? It seems to us that it is, and that you should see to it that he fully understands the fine lessons of our degrees. If you recommend a man to the Scottish Rite, satisfy yourself that he is receiving that for which you recommended him. To do so is but a Masonic courtesy and it is your duty as a Scottish Rite Mason.

Mission Statement

It is the mission of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, SJ, to improve its members and enhance the communities in which they live by teaching and emulating the principles of Brotherly Love, Tolerance, Charity, and Truth while actively embracing high social, moral, and spiritual values including fellowship, compassion, and dedication to God, family and country.

Strategic Objectives

Fulfill the promise of additional Masonic knowledge through education and training.

Build a Positive Public Image of Freemasonry and the Scottish Rite.

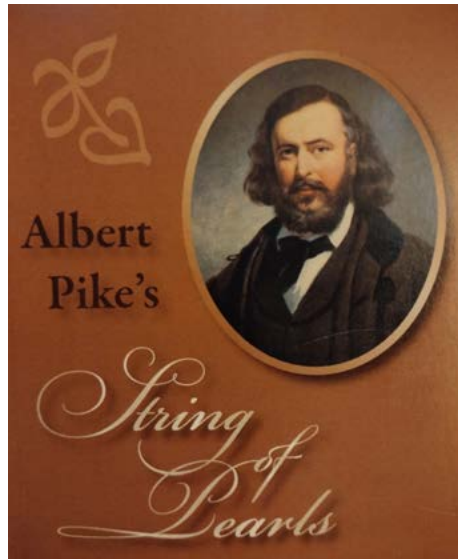

Support and expand our philanthropic activities.

Provide a framework for effective leadership to ensure the stability and long-term success of the Fraternity.

Provide a financial process to ensure the stability and long-term success of the Fraternity

Scottish Rite Creed

Human progress is our cause, liberty of thought our supreme wish, freedom of conscience our mission, and the guarantee of equal rights to all people everywhere our ultimate goal.

Albert Pike's String of Pearls: A Day Book

Author: Larissa P. Watkins (Librarian at the Supreme Council)

EVERY YEAR

By Albert Pike.

(Revised June 21, 1882.)

Life is a count of losses,
     Every year;
 For the weak are heavier crosses,
     Every year;
 Lost Springs with sobs replying
 Unto weary Autumns' sighing,
 While those we love are dying,
     Every year.

(...)

But the truer life draws nigher,
Every year;
And its Morning star climbs higher,
Every year;
Earth's hold on us grows slighter,
And the heavy burden lighter,
And the Dawn Immortal brighter,
Every year.
