Celebrating Milestones: Scottish Rite Honors Awarded in Long Beach, and 25-Year, 50-Year Ceremonies held in Pasadena.

Introduction

As we know, in the world of Freemasonry, milestones are celebrated with solemn ceremonies that recognize years of dedication and service. Two significant events on our Scottish Rite calendar for September stand out: the Scottish Rite Honors Ceremony in Long Beach and the 25-Year and 50-Year Ceremonies in Pasadena. These events not only commemorate longevity but also exemplify the enduring values of brotherhood and enlightenment that Freemasonry holds dear.

Scottish Rite Honors Ceremony in Long Beach

The Scottish Rite Honors Ceremony, held bi-annually in Long Beach, California, is a prestigious event that recognizes the commitment and contributions of Masons within the Scottish Rite fraternity. This ceremony is a testament to the principle of honoring and rewarding dedicated service. During the Scottish Rite Honors Ceremony, members who have demonstrated exceptional dedication to the fraternity are bestowed with various honors and awards including the honorary red cap and the illustrious white cap. These honors not only celebrate the recipients' commitment but also inspire others to strive for excellence in their Masonic journey.

The event is a grand affair, often attended by members and their families. It includes solemn rituals, speeches, and presentations that showcase the rich history and tradition of the Scottish Rite. It's a time for reflection, gratitude, and the reaffirmation of Masonic values.

25-Year and 50-Year Ceremonies in Pasadena

Pasadena, California, has its own unique Masonic traditions. One such tradition is the celebration of the 25-Year and 50-Year Ceremonies. These events, held in Pasadena, honor members who have dedicated a quarter-century or half-century of their lives to Scottish Rite Freemasonry.

The 25-Year Ceremony is a significant milestone for any Mason. It symbolizes a long and meaningful commitment to the principles of Scottish Rite Freemasonry. Members who reach this stage are often recognized for their contributions to their lodges and communities.

The 50-Year Ceremony is a rare and remarkable occasion. It signifies a lifetime of devotion to the Scottish Rite fraternity. Members who achieve this milestone are revered for their unwavering dedication and are often regarded as pillars of their Masonic communities.

Both ceremonies in Pasadena are heartfelt and moving. They celebrate not only the longevity of service but also the enduring friendships and bonds formed within the fraternity.

Conclusion

The Scottish Rite Honors Ceremony in Long Beach and the 25-Year and 50-Year Ceremonies in Pasadena are more than just events on the Masonic calendar; they are profound expressions of brotherhood, service, and enlightenment. These ceremonies remind us that Scottish Rite Freemasonry is not just an organization but a lifelong journey, and those who embark on it are bound by timeless principles that transcend time and place.

These ceremonies bring Masons together to celebrate their shared values and honor those who have walked the Masonic path with unwavering dedication. They are a testament to the enduring strength and relevance of Freemasonry in today's world.

The Secretary's Memo Pad

Ill. William F. Rook, 33°

Greetings my Brothers.

September is here and the autumn months near as well as dues invoices. The dues this year is $205 as in the past few years. But as per capita increases so will your dues come 2025 to $210. But have you ever considered a life membership. We have a plan that is based on age. The following is the breakdown:

Under 49 in age is $4,305.00 or 21 times $205. 50 to 54 inclusive is $3895.00, 55 to 59 inclusive is $3485.00, 60 to 64 inclusive $2870.00, and over 65 is $2255.00. Now I realize that there is some hefty cost in the program. But here is an offer you can't refuse. What if you had a 15 month payment plan? Beginning October 1st you can pay monthly until you reach the total payment. Miss a month and we return your money less your annual dues of $205. The payment rate for this plan is as follows:

Under 49 $287.00 for 15 months
50 thru 54 $260 for 15 months
55 thru 59 $232 for 15 months
60 thru 64 $191 for 15 months
65 and older $150 for 15 months

All money is due prior to the 15th of each month and tardiness will result of loss of the program to the individual and money returned as stated above. Call the office to confirm your willingness to proceed with the program.

Remember the Celebration of Life for Ill. Rees Padfield is September 16 at 11AM. See bulletin for details.

Remember when writing checks to the Rite, make the check payable to A&A Scottish Rite. We can no longer accept checks made out to Pasadena Scottish Rite.

A correction to your dues invoice, please make checks payable to A&A SCOTTISH RITE, NOT Pasadena Scottish Rite. Also mail checks to PASADENA SCOTTISH RITE, 150 N. MADISON AVE, PASADENA CA 91101. This an important correction

See ya at the Rite

New Sheriff in Town

Brethren, this is my first submission to the bulletin since my appointment to the position of Personal Representative for the Valley of Pasadena by our Sovereign Grand Inspector General of the Orient of California, Illustrious Frank Louie, 33°. I am honored and proud to be your P.R., and I look forward to the challenges that await me and the Valley. Some have said, as the title implies, that there is a “New Sheriff in Town” in regard to the position which I now occupy. While that sounds a bit authoritative and that there will be major changes in store for the Valley, I can assure you that nothing could be further from the truth. While there will be some changes forthcoming, overall, things will remain the same. Taking heed from an old masonic teaching, “If it’s not broke, don’t fix it!”

The two concepts that I am introducing are Communication and Transparency. They go hand-in-hand. My life as an inspector for the Grand Lodge of California has shown me time and time again, that lodges that do not practice good communication, are not transparent with their operations. The result is that after some period of time, there is confusion, things slowly fall apart, and the lodge begins to fail. Fortunately, I have already noticed better communications among the various staff members and department directors, and I know that our boards and officers will follow suit. It is so much easier when we are all working toward a common goal that is clearly defined, and good communication makes that possible.

I have already had a conversation with the new Personal Representatives from the Valleys of Long Beach and Orange County, Santa Ana. I have invited them to participate in our reunion next year, each of them taking on the responsibility of performing one of the degrees. They were both very receptive to the idea and felt as I do, that there should be more interaction between the Valleys. Hopefully, this is the start to inter-valley events and activities.

I am very excited to be able to work with so many knowledgeable and well qualified masons in this Valley. I will admit up front that I don’t know it all, so I am very pleased to be surrounded by some very talented people who can give me the advice

I trust to make the right decisions for the governance of our Valley. I believe we are the best Valley in the Orient, and perhaps, dare I say, the Jurisdiction.

Thank you all for the support you have shown me and to our wonderful Valley thus far. Together, we will continue to build upon the foundation that has been laid before us and we will continue to be a shining star in masonry. A testament we can be proud of for generations to come.

Finally, when I served as Venerable Master in 2020, I presented a slogan that I felt would serve as an inspiration to the entire membership to gather around. One that could be used as a beacon to follow. Words that would inspire a brother, not only while engaged in the concourse Freemasonry, but also as a mantra for life. It's short, it's simple and it's quite versatile. Just remember:

“DO IT RITE.”

Knights of Saint Andrew

Randy Marsh, 32° KSA

Greetings from the Council of Nine of the Knights of Saint Andrew (KSA) at the Pasadena Scottish Rite (PSR)!

My name is Randy Marsh, and I am one of the newer members of the Knights of St. Andrew. Almost two years ago I found myself sitting in a room at the Pasadena Scottish Rite along with about 30 other Brothers going through the degrees to become a 32-degree Scottish Rite Mason. One thing I noticed was that hats were an important part of membership at the Rite. There were black ones, red ones, and white ones, each with their own special meaning. Keith Kramer, our classroom instructor, however, was wearing a completely different hat which I later learned was called a glengarry. During a break Keith mentioned to the class that he was the First Knight for a body called the Knights of St. Andrew and if we were interested, we could join this group. Being a history teacher obsessed with the European medieval period, my first thought was, "I can be a knight?" "Really?" Sign me up!

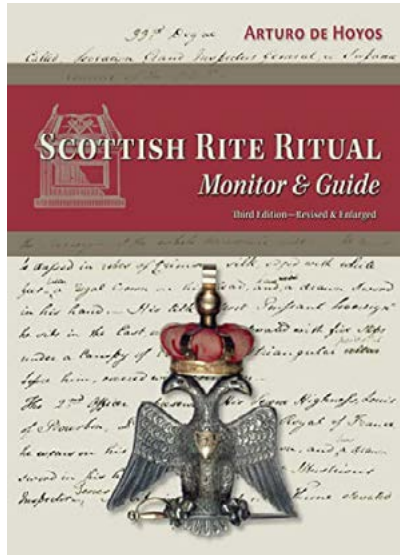

Medieval Knights were bound by a code of chivalry which provided them with a guide in how they were expected to conduct themselves. Knights were to be loyal, honorable, and charitable to name a few. These characteristics are found in the lessons we are taught in the Scottish Rite degrees and are also embodied in the mission of the KSA. The KSA is dedicated to serving the PSR in any capacity needed, without question. Our service might be anything from setting up tables and chairs, calling members of the PSR to see how they are doing, or assisting in the degrees for new members. I am proud and excited to be a part of a group that is committed to serving the needs of the PSR and its members. And I get to wear a cool looking hat too!

Upcoming KSA events:

"Knights Feast" On November 11th the KSA will host a "Knights Feast" to raise money for the Pasadena Rite Care Foundation. The feast will be an evening of food, fun, and entertainment. For more information see Brother First Knight Harry Rostamian.

STRUCTURE OF THE SCOTTISH RITE

THE SCOTTISH RITE IS AN APPENDANT Masonic organization which administers a series of thirty-three degrees and bestows certain "Honours." It is active in every American state and enjoys a cooperative relationship with the American Grand Lodges from whom it solicits members. In terms of membership, the Scottish Rite is the most successful Masonic system in the world.

The governing body of the Scottish Rite is the Supreme Council, an autonomous self-perpetuating body comprised of thirty-three officers, known as Sovereign Grand Inspectors General (S.: G.: I.: G.: s), who possess administrative and voting powers not held by other members. Acting as a board of directors, the Supreme Council elects its own members, amends its own statutes and laws, and writes its own rituals. Supreme Councils do not interfere with or meddle in the private affairs or business matters of other Masonic organizations. It is important to bear in mind that although Supreme Councils throughout the world are similar to each other, they may differ in minor aspects, dependant upon their adopted statutes. Hence, the material in this book applies only to the Supreme Council, 33°, Southern Jurisdiction, USA.

For administrative purposes the Supreme Council divides the Scottish Rite into Orients which are coterminous with the individual American States, while overseas the Orients constitute an area of lawful jurisdiction (e.g. the NATO Bodies in Europe). Orients may be further divided into Valleys. A rough analogy may be to imagine the Supreme Council as a type of “national Grand Lodge”; the Orients as districts; and the Valleys as constituent local lodges.

A Sponsor's Responsibility

For every petitioner for the degrees of Scottish Rite Degrees there is a Scottish Rite Mason who is his sponsor on whom rests the responsibility for proper training of the petitioner. The Scottish Rite Mason who signs the petition has a responsibility that does not end with their signature on the petition. If you invited a guest to a gathering at your home, you make sure that he meets all of your guest and is made welcome and comfortable. Isn't the man whom you recommend Scottish Rite Freemasonry entitled to the same courtesy? As his sponsor, is it not your duty to assist him with his work and take an interest in his progress? It seems to us that it is, and that you should see to it that he fully understands the fine lessons of our degrees. If you recommend a man to the Scottish Rite, satisfy yourself that he is receiving that for which you recommended him. To do so is but a Masonic courtesy and it is your duty as a Scottish Rite Mason.

Gentlemen, thank you for sharing this newsletter with your lady

Dear Ladies,

I have missed seeing you all, but understand that you have had great discussions, including a marvelous speaker, Constance Campbell, who discussed fascinating stories about some of our famous Masons. It sounds like we are scheduled to have good times ahead with more excellent speakers. We will also continue our creative explorations in conjunction with our scrapbook project.

I would like to express our sincere condolences to friends and family for the passing of the Personal Representative Illustrious Rees Padfield. The PSR Women's Association was very privileged to have known him and to have had his solid support and respect for all our projects. He will be sorely missed!

All ladies are welcome to join us for our meeting after dinner in our special newly decorated lounge, with new additions still in progress. If you have any pictures you would like to donate for consideration as our wall hangings or for a possible fundraiser in the future, please feel free to bring them.

Sincerely,
