Dear Respected Brothers and Esteemed Guests,

As my tenure as Wise Master comes to a close, I am honored to address you once more. The past year has been marked by significant transformations in the way we deliver our degrees and instruction to more activities in general as we emerged truly departed from the COVID restrictions.

Every member possesses the potential to exert a meaningful influence on our valley. It is incumbent upon each of us to recognize that we are more than just Masons; we are Scottish Rite Masons. Consequently, it becomes our duty to align ourselves with the missions of the Pasadena Valley.

- Realize the promise of additional Masonic knowledge through education and training.
- Cultivate a Positive Public Image of Freemasonry and the Scottish Rite.
- Support and expand our philanthropic initiatives.
- Provide a framework for effective leadership to ensure the Fraternity's stability and long-term success.
- Establish a financial foundation to ensure the Fraternity's stability and long-term success.

While engaged with your blue lodges, especially during your Stated Meetings, I encourage you to mention our activities and encourage outstanding Master Masons to consider completing a Pasadena Scottish Rite application, available for download on our website at PasadenaScottishRite.org.

During your time at OSI meetings (if you hold an Officer role) please take a moment to discuss among your district, upcoming events at the PSR. Urge your fellow members to join us for our dinners and consider inviting non-Scottish Rite Masons to experience the camaraderie. Additionally, kindly support our in-house charity, the RiteCare Childhood Language Center of Pasadena.

For those eager to actively participate, consider becoming a part of the working team at the PSR in either Stage Performance, Stage Craft which encompasses Sound, Lighting, Wardrobe, Make-up, and Promotions.

Last month, we had the distinct pleasure of witnessing an extraordinary and well attended performance of “The Living Constitution.” This play delved deep into the bedrock principles of our nation, leaving a profound impact on all who experienced it. It is a testament to the unwavering dedication and exceptional talent of our brethren who dedicated themselves to bringing this production to life.

The excitement doesn't end there. Looking ahead, I am thrilled to announce that our next theatrical masterpiece, “The Spirit of Hiram,” is right around the corner. Scheduled for March 8, 2024, this annual tradition promises to be an immersive and glorified representation of the 3rd degree experience. The dedication, passion, and craftsmanship of our PSR Drama Guild Players and Stage Craft team guarantee an unforgettable event that you won't want to miss.

Our commitment to nurturing unity, enlightenment, and fraternity among our brethren remains unwavering. These plays, steeped in Masonic symbolism and heritage, are a testament to our enduring dedication to the principles of Freemasonry and the Scottish Rite in Pasadena.

As I conclude this message, I aim to avoid overwhelming you with information, as we highly value our in-person interactions. Until we meet again, act, and part ways, I bid you farewell.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Frank P. Barbano, 32° KSA

Masters of the Royal Secret

From the Valley of Pasadena, I wish to extend a warm welcome to our newest Masters of the Royal Secret. Over the last several months, you have witnessed twenty-nine degrees, received unending hours of education and many nights of contemplation of the work you have experienced. I hope that it was not in vain, shallow or a waste of your time but rather up lifting, engaging and time well spent. The lessons are many, and every one of you will have had a different experience and will share different views of the teachings of each of the degrees. Your initiation is something that you will reflect upon for the rest of your lives.

Our reward for admitting you into our Valley, is the satisfaction of a job well done, and the hope of your engagement in the purposes of our Order. By that, I hope you will attend regularly, and become true and faithful Brothers among us. I invite you to take part in our degrees, whether it be as an actor, stage craft, lights and sound, make up or wardrobe, we have a spot for you. Or maybe you're more service oriented. The Knights of Saint Andrew are looking for new knights to serve the Valley in a variety of ways. Or perhaps you are more of an admin kind of person. We have four "lodges" that make up the Scottish Rite Bodies and perhaps your talents are best suited as an officer for one of the bodies. What would you like to do? Just ask us. We'll find the opportunity that's right for you.

Lastly, we really want to know how you felt about the entire reunion process. We need your input for future classes. Was it too long or maybe not long enough? Would it be better to receive all 29 degrees over the course of two or three weekends in a row or over a longer period of time? We are striving to make the experience more enjoyable for all and your comments will help us achieve our goal of the best initiation process possible.

Again, I congratulate you, my brothers. May your masonic journey flourish here in the Valley of Pasadena. Remember, the more you put into it, the more you'll get out of it!

A Sponsor's Responsibility

For every petitioner for the degrees of Scottish Rite Degrees there is a Scottish Rite Mason who is his sponsor on whom rests the responsibility for proper training of the petitioner. The Scottish Rite Mason who signs the petition has a responsibility that does not end with their signature on the petition. If you invited a guest to a gathering at your home, you make sure that he meets all of your guest and is made welcome and comfortable. Isn't the man whom you recommend Scottish Rite Freemasonry entitled to the same courtesy? As his sponsor, is it not your duty to assist him with his work and take an interest in his progress? It seems to us that it is, and that you should see to it that he fully understands the fine lessons of our degrees. If you recommend a man to the Scottish Rite, satisfy yourself that he is receiving that for which you recommended him. To do so is but a Masonic courtesy and it is your duty as a Scottish Rite Mason.

“The Living Constitution:
A Night of Masonic Brotherhood and Enlightenment”

On September 30, 2023, we had the privilege of presenting “The Living Constitution,” a live costumed play that not only showcased our dedication and highlighted Constitution Month but also celebrated the spirit of Freemasonry in an unforgettable way. It was a well attended and resounding success.

The casts’ commitment to excellence and professionalism truly shone throughout the evening. Each participant brought their unique talents and enthusiasm to the stage, ensuring that the audience was not only entertained but also enlightened.

“The Living Constitution” took place during September, which many of you may recognize as Constitutional observance month—a time when we, as Freemasons, can reflect upon the principles that guide our nation and our fraternity. The play beautifully encapsulated this theme by bringing to life our nation’s Founding Fathers reminding us of the enduring significance of our Constitution.

As we immersed ourselves in the world of 18th-century America, we couldn’t help but draw parallels between the ideals espoused by Franklin, Jefferson, Madison, Washington, Adams and many others with the timeless Masonic principles we hold dear. Their dedication to individual liberty, justice, and the pursuit of knowledge resonated deeply with our Masonic values. It reminded us that, like them, we too strive to be builders—of character, virtue, and a better world.

However, it wasn’t just the thought-provoking content of the play that made the evening special. It was the bonds of brotherhood that brought us all together. The camaraderie we shared as we gathered in the beautiful Pasadena Scottish Rite cathedral was truly remarkable.

The dinner that preceded the performance is still being talked about. The meal served as a reminder of the importance of breaking bread

together, reinforcing the bonds of friendship and unity that define our Masonic family.

“The Living Constitution” was a testament to the dedication, talent, and brotherhood that defines Masonry. It was an opportunity for us to come together, not only as Masons but also as individuals committed to the principles of freedom, equality, and fraternity. I couldn’t be prouder of our all-star cast of the PSR Drama Guild featuring everyone from our biggest stars Illus Merrick Hamer and Hon Charlie Fisher to our newest ensemble players listed in the photo below along with the Valley of Pasadena’s Stage Craft department and PSR leadership which created the success of this event.

Please carry the spirit of “The Living Constitution” with us as we continue our Masonic journey, always striving to uphold the principles it celebrated. Together, we will continue to build a better world, just as our Masonic forefathers and the Founding Fathers envisioned.

Fraternally,

Frank Barbano

Knights of Saint Andrew*Tim O'Hair, 32° KSA

We find ourselves in November, the month of that great American feast known as Thanksgiving. But that's not all – here in Pasadena, it's the month of the Knights' Feast organized by the Knights of St. Andrew – whose name, in turn, references the apostle Andrew, whose "feast day" is November 30. The legends of Thanksgiving are well known. But St. Andrew? Do you know much about him, or his story, his connections through history?

Andrew holds a very central role in Christianity – he was the (younger) brother of Peter, and a disciple of John the Baptist, who guided them and John the Evangelist to follow Christ. He thus became one of the twelve Apostles.

Like the others, he ventured forth from the Holy Land to evangelize, and his travels took him throughout the region of the Black Sea and modern day Eastern Europe, leading to a key role in the Eastern Orthodox Church – and a position as patron saint of numerous countries, including Romania, Ukraine, and Russia. Ultimately, Andrew was martyred for his evangelizing at Patras, in Greece, circa 60-70 CE. The legend holds further that, in his profound humility, he felt himself unworthy of being crucified on a cross, like Christ; and instead was executed on an x-shaped cross (known as a crux decussata, or "saltire"), bound hand and foot – the "X" is thus strongly associated with Andrew. The day of his martyrdom is held as November 30.

Our narrative continues in Scotland, which adopted the saltire as part of their flag (the white cross on the blue sky). One version holds that descendants of Scythian converts ventured from the Black Sea to settle in Scotland. But look closely at another, for some additional clues which link these symbols to the fraternity, which has its own roots in Scotland. The Scottish history holds that in the 9th century, a certain Angus (aka Oengus), King of the Picts, faced overwhelming odds on the battlefield against a Saxon force led by Athelstan – he prayed fiercely to St. Andrew, whose relics and remains may have been installed (at St. Andrews, well known today for its University and golf). The King and his army had a vision of a white cross against the blue sky, and declared should they emerge victorious, they would name a day in Andrew's honor. Well, they did win (the battle, anyway, for the quarrels between the forces on the British islands would continue for centuries – and both William “Braveheart” Wallace and King Robert the Bruce would both appeal to St. Andrew for guidance!), and the day was set, as was the saltire on the flag.

But the tradition of a celebration on November 30? Well, that takes us to another familiar place, Charleston, South Carolina, in the early 18th century, where Scottish immigrants formed a St. Andrew's Society – the oldest Scots society of its type in the world, dedicated to helping widows and orphans in the area. This group set the date as a “feast day” and spread the word.

Perhaps you are a bit more curious as you read about the places, names, and symbols woven throughout the tales – perhaps you have read or watched the degree named Knight of St. Andrew, or participated in other KSA events... so you are thus implored to “hear what you shall hear, and see what you shall see,” as you raise your fraternal glass to St. Andrew this season.

Happy November!

Tim O'Hair, 32<sup>o</sup> KSA

THE CITY OF PASADENA lies in the foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains, overlooking the San Gabriel Valley. Behind it, to the north, are Altadena and the pine-clad heights of Mount Wilson and Mount Lowe. Its southern limits are separated from Los Angeles by South Pasadena and Alhambra.

The city was originally a part of Rancho Pasqual, a Mexican land grant, and was purchased for $25,000 by the "California Colony of Indiana". This group was composed of wealthy men from the east and middle west. The settlement was called "Indiana Colony", but in 1875 it was changed to Pasadena, an Indian name probably meaning "Crown of the Valley".

On October 15, 1883, a Dispensation was granted to Pasadena Lodge No. 272, and on October 16, 1884, a charter was granted. The town grew and became a permanent community, incorporated in 1886 and chartered by the state in 1901. Pasadena actively supported its educational institutions. In 1891 the California Institute of Technology was founded and Mount Wilson Observatory was established in 1904. The city gradually became a recognized center of education.

At the close of the nineteenth century, a group of Scottish Rite Masons, some of whom were members of Pasadena Lodge No. 272, petitioned for a Scottish Rite Lodge of Perfection in Pasadena. On December 11, 1895, William Frank Pierce, 33°, Sovereign Grand Inspector General for California, duly constituted Temple Lodge of Perfection No. 7 and installed the following officers: Florin L. Jones, 33°, Venerable Master; Arthur H. Conger, 32°, Senior Warden; Charles J. Willett, 32°, Junior Warden; Wyllys Hall, 18°, Orator; La Fayette S. Porter, 32°, Almoner; Ernest H. Gentlemen, thank you for sharing this newsletter with your lady

Dear Ladies,

We are now approaching the last quarter of 2023. With it, we are busy bees returning to our fall schedules which greet us with cooler weather, beautiful fall colors, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and our Religious Holidays. Oh, and of course, bringing in the new year!

I understand that we now have some lovely pictures that have been hung up in our lounge. I have not seen them, but we do thank you for your gracious donations! If they represent, for the donor, a special significance or story associated with the picture{s}, it will make it even more meaningful for us if you are willing to share this at our next meeting. We would love to hear about it. No pressure, just a thought.

Remember all ladies are invited to join the men for our Stated Meeting Dinner at 6:30 pm and are, of course, very welcome to join the ladies upstairs in our newly decorated lounge while the men attend their meeting.

Daniel Mudd will entertain the ladies after the capping ceremony in the Women's Association.

Sincerely,
