A New Dawn: Reflecting on Achievements and Welcoming Our Newly Installed Scottish Rite Brethren
Jan 2024

Dear Esteemed Brothers,

As the outgoing Master of Kadosh for the Pasadena Consistory, it is with great joy and reverence that I write to each one of you at the outset of this promising new year. I extend a heartfelt welcome to our newly initiated Scottish Rite Brethren and newly installed/or soon to be installed Officers and especially our new Venerable Master Honorable Robert Artinian, who has the unique ability to be a friend to many, a mentor to most and an inspiration to us all. Each of your initiations and installations mark not only personal milestones but also a significant event in the life of our Pasadena Scottish Rite. As we embrace January—a month symbolizing beginnings—I find it fitting to pause and reflect on both our past achievements and future horizons.

The past year has been one of monumental growth and deepened fellowship. Our Pasadena Scottish Rite successfully carried out numerous charitable initiatives, offering a helping hand to those in need, including our language center and Air Show Volunteer program spearheaded by our New Personal Representative, Illustrious Gregory Gabriel, and annual Visit from Santa distributing toys and assisting the Masonic Service Bureau with the collection of clothing for the Midnight Mission.

Our educational forums have reached new heights, thanks in large part to Honorable Brother Charlie Fisher who was awarded the Henville Award this year for his efforts in continuing to inspire countless brethren to delve deeper into Masonic philosophy and symbology through his monthly degree meetings. Brother Keith Kramer, has continued to excite and involve New Scottish Rite Masons with his classroom teachings helping to expand to multiple days to accommodate presentation of all 29 of the degrees throughout new extended reunion schedule this year. This is truly a monumental task and should help to promote yearlong involvement in the future. And let us not forget the Masonic degrees we have conferred, which have been executed with an unparalleled degree of fidelity and excellence. Brother Chris Lebedoff, as Director of the Work has increased our degree work to include all 29 of degrees spreading them over the entire year.

Yet, the most vital of our achievements remains the indelible sense of brotherhood that each member of Pasadena Scottish Rite continues to nourish. The mutual support and shared enlightenment we have cultivated are our most valuable accomplishments. The achievements of this past year are not just milestones, but they also serve as stepping stones for greater works to come.

January is indeed a month of beginnings, named for the Roman deity Janus—a god of doors, gates, and transitions. With one face gazing into the past and another staring into the future, Janus is the epitome of reflection and foresight, qualities we hold dear as Masons. Our newly installed Brethren join us at this pivotal moment, as we stand in the doorway between past achievements and future potential. This year we are also blessed with two of our active Pasadena Scottish Rite Brethren joining the Grand Line of Masons of California Narbeh Bagdasarian was appointed as the Grand Orator and Brother Ara Maloyan was elected as the Grand Junor Warden of Masons of California. What a great time to be joining and becoming involved with our Pasadena Scottish Rite and let us not forget the upcoming birthday celebration and renovation of our beautiful building which I will leave the details for a future bulletin.

Our fraternity has a long history of January events that have shaped us over the years, from landmark installations to foundational chartering ceremonies. To join our ranks in a month so steeped in Masonic significance adds a layer of profundity to your initiation.

As we forge into this new year, let our collective resolution be to continue our earnest endeavors—to uplift not just ourselves but also our community, our nation, and indeed the whole of humanity. To our newest members, let this initiation into the Scottish Rite be your ‘New Year of Enlightenment.’ The light you seek is but a reflection of the inner light you bring to this ancient and honorable fraternity.

May the Great Architect of the Universe guide your steps, enlighten your minds, and enrich your lives, as we strive in unity for greater knowledge, deeper understanding, and universal brotherhood.

Fraternally Yours,

Michael A. Schneider, 32° KSA
Master of Kadosh, Consistory

The Secretary's Memo Pad

Ill. William F. Rook, 33°

Happy New Year,

I have written 122 memos for the Pasadena Scottish Rite Bulletin. This is my last one. I will not be going forward as General Secretary after installation of officers on the 26th. I hope I served the Rite well in the last 11 years. I thank all who have assisted me but especially Dolores, Mary, Ron, Ben, Roland and yes even Keith. If I missed anyone forgive me. I am not going away I will still be a loyal Scottish Rite Brother, but in a retired state. So with that allow me to paraphrase a screenplay title by Larry Gelbart and Gene Reynolds:

Farewell, Good-Bye, So Mote it Be!

New Year, New Beginning

Yes, it's a new year and a new beginning for the Valley of Pasadena. It will be a very busy time as we prepare for the new Scottish Rite year and the challenges that await us.

First, however, I must thank the officers and board members who served the Valley so well this past year. These are not easy assignments for most of us, but every brother stepped up to the challenge and did their best. I can't ask more than that from anyone. This past year was truly a successful one.

I must also thank all that participated in the 2023 reunion. It was something to be proud of and I look forward to this year's reunion. I was so delighted that we accepted the challenge to assist the Orient by performing a "make-up" thirty-second degree for the local valleys that were unable to do so on their own. While we had just a short time to get it together, we were able to do so and as a result, we anointed and created several brothers as Masters of the Royal Secret who would otherwise have had to wait until next spring for the opportunity to complete their Scottish Rite journey. Excellent work, my brothers!

For the new year, I had to make some very difficult decisions for officer placement and board directors. It's not my job to reinvent the wheel, but to keep it aligned and well-greased in order to keep it on the path of success. I truly appreciate all that have served and those who will now be taking on these important responsibilities. I wish you all the best.

As many of you now know, there will be a major change in the administration of our Valley. Illustrious Bill Rook, 33°, will be retiring as our General Secretary after many years of faithful service. I have appointed him Secretary Emeritus and Chair of the library committee. On behalf of all the members, we thank you for your wonderful service and dedication and wish you all the best in your new endeavors. Illustrious Ronald Alcorn III, 33°, will take the helm as our new General Secretary, and I look forward toward working with him as we lead Pasadena into a new era.

Finally, I thank the brothers who will take on the important responsibility of leadership in the new year. May the good Lord guide you and may peace and harmony prevail as the Valley of Pasadena continues to shine throughout the Orient. May we enjoy the best year yet, with many more to come.

Childhood Language Center

Robert S. Artinian, 32° KCCH

Greetings,

I want to take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank the board members and advisors who have served in various capacities this past year, including Mrs. Meghri Haabashian, who has served as our Administrator.

As we look forward and forge ahead in 2024, with a common goal, and embark on a new journey for the Childhood Language Center, I look forward to our expansion and the ability to have a positive impact and enrich the lives of as many children and their families as possible.

I want to remember Illustrious Rees Padfield. While serving as an advisor and contributing to the Childhood Language Center, his thoughtful wisdom, and empathy he displayed toward the members as well as the children we served will be cemented in our memory forever.

As Personal Representative, he led with tireless devotion, patience and a vision toward the future and betterment of our Valley. His legacy will forever be remembered.

Wishing all of you a Happy and Healthy New Year!

G. SEAN METROKA
Grand Master of Masons in California

Brother G. Sean Metroka was raised a Master Mason in Table Mountain Lodge No. 124 in Paradise on October 23, 1979. He is a past master of Nevada Lodge No. 13 in Nevada City and the current Master of Harmony Lodge No. 164 in Sierra City.

Brother Metroka currently serves the Grand Lodge of California as Grand Master and is a former Grand Orator, district inspector and chairman of the Grand Lodge Committee on Leadership Development. He has served on all five of the Grand Lodge constitutional boards.

Brother Metroka's involvement in Masonry began when he joined Paradise Chapter Order of DeMolay in 1972. He served as chapter master councilor in 1974 and Superior Division master councilor in 1977. He was honored with the Degree of Chevalier and Legion of Honor. Sean continued his involvement in DeMolay as an adult advisor and was awarded the Cross of Honor, the Grand Master's Youth Support Award, and the Guild of the Leather Apron for his distinguished adult service. Sean credits DeMolay with having the greatest positive influence on his youth, second only to his parents. In 1976, Sean enlisted in the United States Marine Corps, the start of what would be more than 30 years of military service to his country. After graduating from California State University at Chico with a Bachelor of Arts degree in geography, Sean was commissioned a Second Lieutenant. He received numerous promotions during his career and was ultimately elevated to the rank of Colonel. During his tenure, he served in both active duty and reserve capacities. He was the commander of the 5th Battalion, 14th Marines in Seal Beach and served two combat tours of duty in Iraq, where he planned long-range fire support for the First Marine Expeditionary Force and was the Marines' liaison to the Combined Joint Special Operations Task Force, Arabian Peninsula.

Following his initial release from active duty, Sean entered the aerospace industry as a systems engineer with McDonnell Douglas in Long Beach. Through several promotions he ended up as a senior manager in finance and accounting. After a stint in healthcare business management, Sean joined the finance department of Nevada County Superior Court in 2000. Returning from a tour of duty in Iraq in 2003, Sean was selected to be the court's chief executive officer and served in that position for 15 years. As CEO, Sean was responsible for overseeing the management and administration of all non-judicial functions of the court, including personnel, finance, facilities, technology, security, jury management, long-range planning, and public relations. Sean retired from the court in 2018 to focus on other things he loves, especially his service in Freemasonry. Sean is a Scottish Rite, York Rite and Shrine Mason, and is a member of the Red Cross of Constantine, Holy Royal Arch Knight Templar Priests, Sciots, National Sojourners, Heroes of 76, Allied Masonic Degrees and Golden Compasses Research Lodge.

Sean has actively supported his community. He served as cub master and scout master when his sons were young, and he coached youth football. He was a member of the board of directors of Sierra Nevada Memorial Hospital Foundation for 15 years, including four years as president. He has served several other non-profits and as a volunteer for Empire Mine State Historic Park.

Brother Sean and his wife, Margaret, live in Nevada City. They've been married 39 years and have three adult children and two grandchildren.

 FINAL INSTRUCTION

We shall confine ourselves to such explanations as will point to the paths of study, travelling in which you may come, in time, fully to comprehend the meaning of this degree.

The Word whispered in your ear is the substitute for the TRUE WORD of a Master. It contains a mystery which you may perhaps hereafter learn. It is said to have been the first exclamation at the grave when the body had been uncovered, and it covers and contains the True Word. "Seek and ye shall find." "The Glory of God," the Scripture saith, is, to conceal the Word." "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was contained in God, and the Word was God."

In the French Rite, and also in the English Lodges, the substitute is . . . , which is composed of two Hebrew words, and means, "the place where the murdered one was concealed."

It is said that when the third conspirator was on the point of striking the Master, the latter threw his hands up in front of his forehead, with the palms outward, to protect his forehead against the blow, crying, "O Lord, my God! is there no help for the son of the widow". Hence Masons are called Children of the Widow."

The seal found on the body of the Master Hairom was what is still known among the Arabs and the Hebrews of the Orient as the Light or Seal of Salomon.
