Commander

Council of Kadosh

My brothers,

This being my first message as the Commander of Council of Kadosh, I would like to take this opportunity and offer my heartfelt thanks to all of you, my Brothers at the Valley of Pasadena, for having put your trust and confidence in me by electing me to this position. This is a truly humbling experience, and I shall cherish it dearly. I would also like to offer our collective thanks to our Valley's management last year. Thanks to our Personal Representative, Illustrious Gabriel, and our Venerable Master, Illustrious Badoyan, our Valley achieved significant accomplishments last year. To me, the most important was that in 2023, we offered and performed more Degrees for those Brothers who were going through their Scottish Rite journey.

And now, I am looking forward to this year. As we all know, Venerable Artinian will continue to develop plans and programs that would elevate the Valley of Pasadena to a higher level of visibility throughout our state. To him, we all pledge our support!

This year, I am expected to prepare and offer three messages to be published in our Valley's bulletin. I have decided that my three messages will be related and will have the same theme and foundation. That ongoing theme is going to be the influence of Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. Beginning with this message, I will focus on importance of Scottish Rite Degrees, how the Degrees benefit our Fraternity in general, and how they benefit us individually, as Scottish Rite members. I will cover the importance and significance of the Scottish Rite Degrees in this message.

As most of you know, Albert Pike (1809-1891), who served as the Sovereign Grand Commander of the Supreme Council, Scottish Rite (Southern Jurisdiction, USA) from 1859 to 1891, was very instrumental in developing and expanding our Scottish Rite doctrines, rituals and procedures. In his famous book, "Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry," published in 1871, Pike primarily focused on the meanings and effects of the Scottish Degrees and their beautiful and impressive Ritual. He had an optimistic and positive opinion about the Scottish Rite, viewing it as a means of further promoting the principles of Freemasonry and guiding its members on a path of moral, intellectual, and spiritual enlightenment.

In Albert Pike's view, the Scottish Rite is an effective vehicle for emphasizing the importance of education, virtue, and service; he believes that the Scottish Rite plays a crucial role in instilling these values in its members. Pike as well as several other Masonic scholars are of the firm opinion that the Scottish Rite offers an invaluable opportunity for Masons to explore further and delve deeper into the historical, philosophical and esoteric aspects of our Craft. The degrees of the Scottish Rite are means of imparting moral, ethical, and spiritual lessons to its members, guiding them on a journey of self-discovery and enlightenment.

Thus, going through the Scottish Rite Degrees is an essential step required for each Freemason who wants to develop his knowledge and educate himself in the history and esoterism imbedded in various parts of our ceremonies. It can be said with certainty that the Scottish Rite experience is required for one to get a better understanding of the true meaning of the first three Degrees of our Blue Lodges, especially the Third Degree.

As members of the Scottish Rite, therefore, it is our responsibility to educate and inform our Blue Lodges Brothers about the importance of the Scottish Rite teachings and experience. I truly believe it is our duty to promote the Scottish Rite specially to those Masons who are more interested in our history and in symbolic and esoteric meaning behind our Degrees. Let us reflect and contemplate on this duty and do all we can to promote the Scottish Rite.

Meet the Commander

Narbeh Bagdasarian, 32° Commander, Council of Kadosh

Brother Narbeh was born into a Christian Armenian family in Teheran, Iran. After high school, he attended medical school. He and his wife moved to California in 1991, and after receiving accreditation for his medical degree, Narbeh attended law school. For the last 18 years, he is an attorney with the County of Los Angeles representing physicians who work at various County hospitals and clinics. For almost 20 years, Brother Narbeh has also been teaching medical as well as legal courses in various colleges and universities.

Brother Narbeh's Masonic life began in 1993. He was raised in July 1993 in Glendale Lodge. Later in the same year, he received his 32nd Degree at the Pasadena Scottish Rite. Narbeh served as the Master of Glendale Lodge in 1997, 1998 and 2007. In 2000, Brother Narbeh received the Hiram Award. He is also a member of Round Table Lodge No. 876, Ararat Lodge No. 848, La France Lodge No. 885, the Lodge of Holy Land No. 50 in Jerusalem, Israel, and Harmony Lodge No. 8 in Yerevan, Armenia.

In 2007, Brother Narbeh affiliated with the Grand Lodge of Iran in Exile or GLI. He is a Past Master of Hafez Lodge No. 8 and Toos Lodge No. 35 under the GLI. He served the GLI as the Grand Organist, Assistant Grand Lecturer, and the Grand Lecturer. During his term as the GLI Grand Lecturer, he published GLI's very first ritual book and floor work manual.

Brother Narbeh has served the Grand Lodge of California as the Grand Bible Bearer for two terms. He is currently the Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of California. He is a director on the Acacia Creek Board, and is the Inspector of the 737 Masonic District.

Brother Narbeh has a real passion for music. He has published two music collections and is working on his third. His second music collection, published in August 2020, is "Freemasons' Music," a book that has more than 400 pieces of Masonic music.

The Spirit of Hiram

Returns Friday, March 8, 2024 at 8pm

The Spirit of Hiram is a dramatic presentation of the Master Mason Degree. It has been performed by Pasadena Scottish Rite for decades and will return to our stage for one night. It is a tiled performance for Master Masons only – please put this on your calendars and help us spread the word by announcing it at your lodges via Trestleboard, Secretary communication & appendent bodies. There is a free Spaghetti Dinner at 6:30 pm. We look forward to your attendance.

March Madness

Once again, March madness is upon us. But I'm not talking about college basketball or spring training at baseball camp. I speak of the "MASONIC" calendar and the many events that the Month of March brings.

Of course, there are the regular activities the Scottish Rite has to offer, monthly dinner, stated meeting and the like, but there is so much more!

March has always been celebrated by our Grand Lodge as Masonic Youth Month. I challenge every member to visit at least one DeMolay Chapter, Job's Daughters Bethel, or Rainbow Assembly during the month. I would like to know what you thought about the meeting. I also encourage you to be a mentor for one of these great organizations. We need to show our youth that "Masons Care" isn't just lip service, it's the real thing!

At home, we will have our annual stage production of the "Spirit of Hiram", a presentation of the second section of the third degree. It is open to ALL Master Masons, but a 2024 dues card is required. See the advertisement for this event in the Bulletin for further details.

March is a wonderful time of year, please spend some of that time with your brothers at the Rite. Oh, and don't forget to set your clocks forward on Sunday, March 10th. I don't want you to be late for any of our activities!

A Sponsor's Responsibility

For every petitioner for the degrees of Scottish Rite Degrees there is a Scottish Rite Mason who is his sponsor on whom rests the responsibility for proper training of the petitioner. The Scottish Rite Mason who signs the petition has a responsibility that does not end with their signature on the petition. If you invited a guest to a gathering at your home, you make sure that he meets all of your guest and is made welcome and comfortable. Isn't the man whom you recommend Scottish Rite Freemasonry entitled to the same courtesy? As his sponsor, is it not your duty to assist him with his work and take an interest in his progress? It seems to us that it is, and that you should see to it that he fully understands the fine lessons of our degrees. If you recommend a man to the Scottish Rite, satisfy yourself that he is receiving that for which you recommended him. To do so is but a Masonic courtesy and it is your duty as a Scottish Rite Mason.

The Significance of Masonic Symbolism

Our library has a wealth of material and literature on Freemasonry. Many subjects are available for study and research. I hope each month to focus in on some topics that might spark an interest in further study and research in the individual brother. This month symbolism is the topic.

Masonry is “veiled in allegory and illustrated by symbols” because these are the surest ways by which moral and ethical truths may be taught. It is not only with the brain and the mind the the initiate takes in Masonry but also with the heart.

Mind speaks to mind with spoken and written words, Heart speaks to heart with words that can not be written or spoken. Those words are symbol; words which mean little to the indifferent, much to the understanding.

The body has its five senses through which the mind can learn; the mind also has imagination. That imagination may see farther than the eyes and hear sounds farther than may be caught by the ears. To the imagination symbols become plain as printed words to the eyes, Nothing else will do; no words can be as effective.

Each Mason can and should analyze for himself each symbol, each allegory, and form his own personal moral philosophy. Through the study of symbolism he will learn the meaning of Masonry, and his own life will be enriched thereby.

The significance of symbolism is emphasized in the following quotation from Oliver Day Street's Symbolism of the Three Degrees.

It may be asserted in the broadest terms that the Mason that knows nothing of the symbolism knows little of Masonry. He may be able to repeat every line of ritual without error, and yet if he does not understand the meaning of the ceremonies, the signs, the words, the emblems, and the figures, he is an ignorant Masonically. It is distressing to witness how much time and labor is spent in memorizing 'the work' and how little in ascertaining what it means, Far be it from me to underrate the importance of letter perfection in rendering the ritual, In no other way can the symbolism of our emblems, traditions, and allegories be accurately preserved, but I do maintain that, if we never understand their meanings, it is useless to preserve them, The two go hand in hand; without either the beauty and symmetry of the masonic Temple is destroyed.

Take from Masonry its symbols and but the husk remains, the kernel is gone. He who hears but the words of Masonry misses their meaning entirely.

Fraternally,

Bill

Mission Statement

It is the mission of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, SJ, to improve its members and enhance the communities in which they live by teaching and emulating the principles of Brotherly Love, Tolerance, Charity, and Truth while actively embracing high social, moral, and spiritual values including fellowship, compassion, and dedication to God, family and country.

Strategic Objectives

Fulfill the promise of additional Masonic knowledge through education and training.

Build a Positive Public Image of Freemasonry and the Scottish Rite.

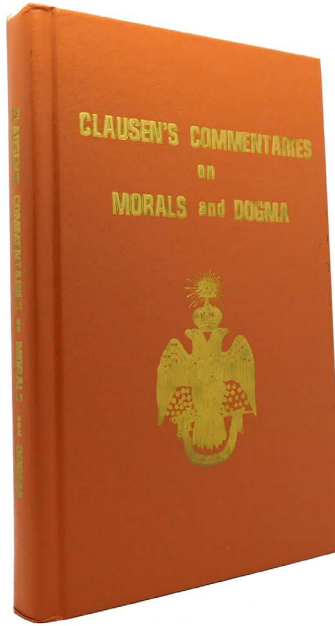

Support and expand our philanthropic activities.

Provide a framework for effective leadership to ensure the stability and long-term success of the Fraternity.

Provide a financial process to ensure the stability and long-term success of the Fraternity

Scottish Rite Creed

Human progress is our cause, liberty of thought our supreme wish, freedom of conscience our mission, and the guarantee of equal rights to all people everywhere our ultimate goal.

Summary:

Masonry reduces to practice the great principles of God's inherent love, charity, morality and kindness. But many times the symbols and the ceremonies deliberately have multiple meanings. The truth then is concealed in hints and allusions that are designed for discovery only in stages and through organized and systematic reflection and study. It is futile to advance unless we learn the lessons already given in work and ceremonies and communications and the related jurisprudence. Thus, we proceed toward our ultimate goal of Perfection, the name of our first fourteen degrees. But the Scottish Rite is practical. The world itself is God's handiwork and hence essentially good. In truth, it is the beginning of heaven and part of immortality. We should weigh the world's evil against the good; the misanthropy, the melancholy and the despair as opposed to the contentment, the blessings and the happiness. Compare our afflictions with those of they who are less fortunate. Our faults are more truly reflected in the mirror of enemies than that of friends. We have high duties to perform and an inspiring destiny to fulfill upon this earth as a noble field of action.

Gentlemen, thank you for sharing this newsletter with your lady

Good afternoon Ladies,

I am sorry I have not been able to be with you the last few months however, my thoughts and good wishes have been and continue to be with you all!

In the meantime, Sharon Ouellette, our faithful Secretary has volunteered to help us along the way during my absence.

She was our "official" greeter last month as you all arrived for our dinner before the meeting and, I believe, she will have name tags for you all in March to help us become acquainted with each other as we meet together upstairs in our lounge. You all will probably discuss any further details that Sharon or others might offer.

PS: I understand the elevator was out of order for our February meeting, but hopefully will be repaired for our next meeting. If there is still an inconvenience for our March meeting, I believe you will be able to meet in the dining room after dinner or perhaps in another room on the same floor. Sharon will be able to announce the change, if necessary before we depart for our meeting.

I hope you all will have lovely weather by our March meeting.

Sincerely,
Lynda Lockhart
